NBAHS BLOCK SCHEDULE

WHY

- Students have the ability to focus on less classes in a day
- Smaller class sizes compared to the previous 7-period day schedule
- Longer/extended class periods to support lab courses
- In depth lessons and time for practicing skills
- Opportunities for support and enrichment
- Enhanced Social-Emotional-Learning opportunities for students

FLEX TIME

Flex time encourages student ownership for learning in which each student is motivated, engaged and self-directed. It allows students the flexibility to monitor their own progress and to reflect upon and extend their learning.

DURING FLEX

Students can retake tests, focus on academic work, or receive assistance on college and career readiness.

TEACHER OFFICE HOURS

Additional daily support within the school day ("office hours") provided to students from 7:55am - 8:15am. This time will provide students with the opportunity to effectively and efficiently address academic needs, including but not limited to, assessment retake, clarification of assignment expectations, check-in, all designed to support students ability to manage and provide flexibility in the learning process.
